Barton Heights took a fall out of the champion Browns yesterday afternoon in a game that lasted twelve innings, and ended with great noise from the grand stand and bleachers. Score, 9 to 7.

Manchester hammered the Richmond team down another notch, and prevented Barton Heights from taking an advantage, by winning the first of the two games with a 2 to 1.

The First Game.

Something like a hundred people witnessed the two games, and the finish of the second was well worth the money. The champions started the game with four runs, Barton Heights opened the second inning with three runs, and the excitement began. In the third the boys from Fulton sent Eacho and Hulcher around the diamond, making the score 6 to 2 in their favor. Both sides scored in the fifth, but the team from across the divide got the big end of the runs, receiving four and dishing out to the Browns only one.

And with the score tied like this, the game went merrily on until the twelfth inning. Both sides made desperate efforts in the ninth to force a man across the rubber, but fast playing stopped all attempts of this nature. The Browns had a chance to score in the seventh, but lost it when Eacho was convicted of stealing the second sack. Sharp fanned, and then Eacho and Hulcher got safe ones. But Gruner, he of over-the-fence fame, couldn't do better than put one to deep left, where Rose ended the misery.

The tenth and eleventh innings were three outs, and the twelfth opened with the Barton Heights boys at the bat. Sutherland got to first on four balls, and Rose drew a sigh from the grand stand when he ozoned. Sharp didn't handle Rose's drive, and with two men on bases, he struck a cooking two-sacker. Pandemonium! Two runs came in. Hoskins fanned and Phillips was out with a pop fly.

Bowers, for the Browns, came up and made a pretty effort to get the sphere over the center fielder's head. But didn't touch it. Eacho was sent out from short to first, and then Eacho received the rosters by pasting a pretty single. He pilfered second, but Hulcher sent one down to first, and the first twelve-inning game of the season was at an end, with the Barton Heights boys victorious.

Manchester, 9; Richmond, 2.

Richmond's team was under a great disadvantage when it met the outcast, Paul Bender, the erstwhile manager of the aggregation, wouldn't release his hold upon the nine, the appointment of Treasurer Robert Knightly to the position notwithstanding. And the conflict had a damping effect on the players. This, too, some as good material as in the league, but the players have been badly handled. Not over two or three of the nine ever know what position they will play in until the game is called.
